1 Laguna Beach
About Laguna Beach is a small coastal city in Orange County, California. It’s known for its many art galleries, coves and beaches. Main Beach features tide pools and a boardwalk leading to the paths and gardens of nearby Heisler Park. Aliso Beach Park is a popular surf spot. The waters off Crystal Cove State Park are designated as an underwater park. Trails meander through coastal canyons in Laguna Coast Wilderness Park. Referenced as the “Top of the World,” this scenic lookout point offers some of the best views in Laguna Beach. Alta Laguna Park is located here, as well as a trail head for Aliso and Wood Canyons Wilderness Park.

2 Huntington Beach
About Huntington Beach is a California city southeast of Los Angeles. It's known for surf beaches, such as Huntington City Beach, with its long Huntington Beach Pier. The International Surfing Museum displays longboards and other memorabilia. Sprawling Huntington Central Park features fields, gardens and lakes, plus an equestrian center. Bolsa Chica Ecological Reserve's wetlands and dunes shelter hundreds of bird species.

3 Fashion Island
About. Fashion Island is an outdoor regional shopping mall in Newport Beach, California. Opened in 1967 by The Irvine Company as the anchor to their master-planned Newport Center district, Fashion Island is anchored by Bloomingdale's, Macy's, Neiman Marcus, and Nordstrom.

4 Newport Beach
About Newport Beach: Newport Beach, a coastal city in southern California, is known for its large, boat-filled harbor. Balboa Peninsula has 2 piers, Newport Beach Pier and Balboa Pier, plus the Balboa Fun Zone, an old-school amusement park with a Ferris wheel and ocean views. Local beaches include the Wedge, known for its big waves, and Corona del Mar State Beach.About the pier: The Newport Pier is one of two municipal piers in the city of Newport Beach, California. The pier replaced the McFadden Wharf and the site is registered as California Historical Landmark number 794. It is 1,032 feet long.

5 Balboa Island
About Balboa Island: About Balboa Island is a harborside community in Newport Beach, California, accessible to the public via bridge, ferry and several public docks. The community is surrounded by a paved concrete boardwalk open to pedestrian traffic, designated as a public walking trail by the city.

San Juan Capistrano

San Juan Capistrano is a city in southern Orange County, California, United States. Named for Saint John of Capistrano, San Juan Capistrano was founded by the Spanish in 1776, when Father Junípero Serra established Mission San Juan Capistrano. Beautiful place with Spanish ambience. I had a wonderful experience at the Mission San Juan Capistrano. The place is safe with relaxing view. Souvenir items are very affordable with polite and friendly staff.
