Los Angeles
Starts at 6:00 AM, 6:30 AM, 7:00 AM, 7:30 AM · pickup up to 45 min earlier

1 Mission San Juan Capistrano,pass by without stopping

We will drive past the historic Mission San Juan Capistrano, one of California's most iconic Spanish missions, founded in 1776. Along the way, you'll learn about its rich history, beautiful architecture, and cultural significance.If you would like to stop and explore the mission, admission tickets can be purchased separately.

2 Dana Point Harbor

Then we will reach Dana Point Harbor, a picturesque waterfront destination known for its beautiful marina, ocean views, and coastal charm. Stroll along the harbor, watch boats sail in and out, and enjoy the relaxed Southern California atmosphere. It is also famous for its whale-watching tours, boating activities, and beautiful views of the Pacific coastline.Guests will have time to explore the area, take photos, or simply enjoy the scenic surroundings.

3 Alta Laguna Park

After that, we will head to Alta Laguna Park, a scenic hilltop park in Laguna Beach best known for its famous viewpoint called "Top of the World." This breathtaking spot offers sweeping panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean, coastal canyons, city lights, and surrounding mountain ranges. With open skies, fresh ocean breeze, and hiking trails, it's one of the best photo stops in Orange County to soak in the natural beauty of Southern California.

4 Heisler Park

After soaking in the views at Alta Laguna Park, we will head down to Heisler Park, a beautiful coastal bluff park located in the heart of Laguna Beach. Located above the Pacific Ocean, this iconic park offers sweeping views of the rugged coastline, tide pools, and endless blue water.
Guests can stroll along scenic pathways, enjoy the fresh ocean breeze, and take in one of Laguna Beach's most loved seaside spots. It's a perfect blend of natural beauty, tranquility, and classic Southern California coastal charm.

5 Balboa Island

Next, we will make our way to Balboa Island, a picture-perfect island in the heart of Newport Beach. Don't let its small size fool you — this charming spot is full of character. Wander along its waterfront streets lined with cozy cottages, browse unique boutique shops, and watch yachts and sailboats glide through the harbor. There's a relaxed, unhurried feel here that invites you to slow down, take a stroll, and simply enjoy the moment. Balboa Island offers a true taste of classic Southern California coastal living.

6

Balboa Island,pass by without stopping

We will pass by the Balboa Island Ferry, a short but iconic ferry route that connects Balboa Island with the Balboa Peninsula. It is one of the oldest and most charming ferry crossings in California, offering scenic views of Newport Harbor and the surrounding waterfront homes as we cross by.

7

Newport Beach Pier, pass by without stopping

Then we will pass by the Newport Beach Pier, a historic and popular landmark stretching into the Pacific Ocean. Known for its classic wooden structure and lively beach atmosphere, it is a favorite spot for surfers, walkers, and visitors enjoying the coastal views along Newport Beach.

8

Huntington Beach Pier

Our final stop of the day takes us to the iconic Huntington Beach Pier, one of the longest piers on the West Coast and the heart of what the world knows as "Surf City USA." Walk out over the sparkling Pacific Ocean, feel the ocean breeze on your face, and watch surfers ride the waves below — a sight that never gets old. The pier stretches beautifully into the horizon, offering stunning ocean views from every angle. Soak in the lively beach atmosphere, stroll along the famous boardwalk, and let the golden California sunshine wrap up your day in the most perfect way possible.

9

Los Angeles

After an unforgettable time at the pier, we will head back to Los Angeles, bringing an end to a truly memorable day exploring the stunning coastline of Southern California.
